1. Heard learned Counsel for the applicant and learned D.P.Adsule,A.P.P. for the State.

2. The applicant is challenging the order dated 9th March 2004 passed by this Court. By the said order direction was given by this Court to remove office objections within one week. Further, it was directed that if office objections are not removed within the stipulated time, the application shall stand dismissed for non-prosecution. However, office objections could not be removed within one week. It is stated in the said application that only objection which was not removed was that spare copies of the appeal memo were not supplied. It is stated in the application that in fact spare copies were already supplied within stipulated time. In spite of that, the matter appeared on board for non-removal of office objections. Explanation given by the applicant is accepted. The order dated 9th March 2004 is set aside. Criminal application No.399 of 2004 is restored to file.
